

Child Find

services offered by Fouke School District

These services are available for public school students, private school students* or home schooled students.*

If you suspect a student to have speech impairment, academic delay, or in need of assistance in school, contact:

Patricia Jameson, LEA Special Education Supervisor for Fouke Schools, at (903)824-7829

Shondra Langley, Educational Examiner for Fouke Schools, at (903)284-0800

Patricia Jameson, Fouke Elementary School Principal, at (870)653-4165

Erica Baird, Paulette Middle School Principal, at (870)653-7841

Eva Nadeau, Fouke High School, at (870)653-7823

If you suspect a student is visually impaired and in need of educational services, contact:

Melanie Birthright, SWAEC Educational Vision Consultant, at (870) 703-9237

If you suspect that a student exhibits dyslexic characteristics, contact:

Lynette Oliver, dyslexia Interventionist for Fouke Elementary, at (870) 653-4165

If you suspect a student is in need of access to the curriculum who may need support through Section 504, please contact:

Shondra Langley, 504 Coordinator for Fouke Schools, at (903)284-0800

If you know a student who is in need of homebound educational services, contact:

Please reach out to that student's teacher, special education teacher or campus principal.

If you suspect a student is homeless please contact:

Carman Cross – Homeless Liaison for Fouke Schools, at (870) 653-7864

If you have any additional questions in regards to Child Find please contact:

Patricia Jameson, LEA Special Education Supervisor for Fouke Schools, at (903)824-7829

Shondra Langley, 504 Coordinator for Fouke Schools, at (903)284-0800

*The services for private or homeschooled students are considered to be an educational service and not entitlement for students who meet the qualifications. Students are provided assistance through a service plan instead of having an Individual Education Plan. If your child is in a private school, you may contact the local school administrator in the private school attendance area for more information.