

SCHOLARSHIP INSIGHT

OKLAHOMA CITY COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

Scholarship Season is Back!

AcademicWorks Reopens Oct. 1

Our online scholarship application site is set to reopen Oct. 1 to allow students to begin applying for scholarships for the 2020-21 academic year. Last year, the Oklahoma City Community Foundation awarded more than $2.5 million in scholarships to 803 students across the state.

Are you ready to help your students claim their share of this year's awards? Head to occf.academicworks.com to begin browsing more than 150 scholarship opportunities we offer for students statewide!

Preparing to Apply for Scholarships

5 Tips to Enhance Your Application

As our good friend William Shakespeare once said, "In delay there lies no plenty." Although many of our scholarships have spring deadlines, students should begin preparing NOW.

Download this printout to share with your students five things they can work on now to enhance any scholarship application.

Learning the Lingo of Financial Aid

FAFSA Opens Oct. 1

We know financial aid and FAFSA terminology is hard, so we found a glossary of terms from College Board to help you learn the lingo.

Come See Us at a College Fair Near You!

Our scholarships have a convenient and easy online application process. Simply follow the steps below to apply for a scholarship. For answers to our most frequently asked questions, view our guide here.

How to Apply

OKLAHOMA CITY
COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

Questions? Contact us at scholarships@occf.org.

