

Union Public Schools

Jay Loegering
Executive Director of Human Resources

Jay Loegering came to the District in 2011 with 17 years of human resources experience. A proud Union Public Schools graduate, he went on to graduate cum laude with a bachelor's degree in psychology from the University of Tulsa, and did his masters work in Industrial Organizational Psychology at Illinois State University.

Prior to joining Union in 2011, he worked as the Human Resources Director at Cancer Care Associates, Human Resources Manager at Whirlpool Corporation, and Human Resources Representative at AEP/PSO.

Loegering has obtained national certification as a Senior Professional in Human Resources through the HR Certification Institute, and Senior Certified Professional through the Society of Human Resources Management. Loegering is a member of the Society for Human Resources Management, and the Tulsa Area Human Resources Association.